

Smart Cities

BUSINESS INNOVATION FUND 2.0

2024 Call for Proposals

- Who: U.S.-ASEAN Smart Cities Partnership
U.S. Department of State, EAP/MLA
- What: $3 million of financing for urban innovation
- When: Open application period is June to September 2024
- Where: ASEAN member states
- Why: To accelerate urban sustainability and subnational climate action

The U.S.-ASEAN Smart Cities Partnership (USASCP), in collaboration with Enterprise Singapore, is launching a $3 million call for proposals for small and medium ASEAN entities pioneering innovative, carbon neutral solutions to urban challenges under the Smart Cities Business Innovation Fund 2.0. Enterprise Singapore's involvement through their Co-Innovation Program (CIP) will expand the program by promoting ASEAN-Singapore business partnerships to advance innovation and market solutions. The CIP will support Singapore-based companies' collaboration with ASEAN entities through joint activities such as R&D to bring projects to market.

Previous Awardees

PHNOM PENH, CAMBODIA

Agroecology Gardens for the Future (AG4F) creates community gardens in urban areas to encourage youth environmental stewardship

TANGERANG, INDONESIA

Biopac is a biodegradable seaweed packaging company aiming to reduce single-use plastic pollution

LUANG PRABANG, LAO PDR

Patihoub shreds, cleans, presses, and molds low-grade plastic into construction materials and household products

PENANG, MALAYSIA

Greener Wheels measures carbon footprints of transport fleets and improves economic, social, and governance (ESG) standards

BATAAN, PHILIPPINES

Kloudtech develops 3D printable climate and hydrologic monitoring systems to address urban flooding

DA NANG, VIETNAM

5RTECH aims to reuse and recycle solar panels/PV and its components

Applications Open
Early June 2024

Eligibility & Next Steps:

- Legally registered ASEAN companies, NGOs and/or universities in an ASEAN country with at least 51% ASEAN ownership
- ASEAN entities can register on Enterprise Singapore's partner matching platform to identify a Singaporean partner
- The ASEAN entity and Singaporean partner jointly submit an application