

Circular Entrepreneurship Program & Partnerships

Prof. Clyde Eiríkur Hull

Director of Competitive Sustainability Center
Saunders College of Business, RIT

Circular Entrepreneurship Program

- Trainer of Trainer programs on Circular Entrepreneurship
- Curriculum development
- CE Themed Business Pitch Competitions through partners

Our partners across ASEAN Region

Partnerships and Delivery

Universities

- Sharing curriculum through TOT Trainings
- Memoranda of understanding (facilitating ASEAN students attending RIT)

Incubators

- Short, non-credit delivery (modules)

Benefits to ASEAN Member States

- Makes local entrepreneurs more successful
- Drives sustainable economic growth
- Increases local/city, national and regional economic independence
- Reduces environmental degradation in communities/cities and surrounding areas

Key Points

- Education & Training
- Working with organizations, Public/private institutions
- Economic Development within their borders
- Supporting local entrepreneurs with training for better directions